Dated 20th January, 2005

CIRCULAR

Subject:- Forwarding of applications of the scientists for assignment in Foreign Govt. and International Organizations - regarding.

The subject of forwarding of applications of ICAR scientists for long term assignments under International Organizations and Foreign Governments was reviewed recently. Since there is a shortage of scientists in the Council, it has been decided not to forward the applications for such assignments except in the case of FAO, UNDP, World Bank & CGIAR Institutions until further notice.

This comes into effect immediately.

The Consortium of Centers is a new legal entity that was established to lead, coordinate and support Center research. Toward this end, it is guiding the formulation of the CGIAR's Strategy and Results Framework together with a portfolio CGIAR Research Programs. As the counterpart of the CGIAR Fund, the Consortium implements these programs through Centers and their partners, based on performance agreements between the Consortium and Fund.
